YOUR BUSINESS HAS SEVEN DAYS

TO RESPOND TO UNEMPLOYMENT CLAIM REQUESTS.

WE'RE HERE TO HELP YOU.

Choose to be notified electronically when an employee files an unemployment claim so you can provide a time-sensitive initial response. Failure to object or supply a response within seven days will result in your business being charged for any benefits paid up until an appellate decision. By managing your unemployment benefits, your business will save money.

It's easy to register your business, big or small, so you can be notified as soon as a claim is filed. To request an application, send an email to sides@labor.idaho.gov.

Take care of business. Online. Anytime.
